It is with immense pride and great satisfaction that I address the students, faculty, and well-wishers of *Sree Abirami College of Nursing* through this magazine.

At Sree Abirami College of Nursing, our vision has always been to *create nurses who are not only clinically competent but also deeply compassionate and ethically grounded*.

We have ensured that our students receive real-time exposure through our parent multi-specialty hospital, Sree Abirami Hospital, enabling them to translate theory into practice. Our curriculum is designed to build strong academic foundations, practical expertise, and leadership qualities in every student.

What makes our institution unique is the *blend of modern education with value-based learning*. We focus on building character as much as we focus on building careers. I am proud of our students who represent the spirit of care and commitment, not just in Tamil Nadu but across the Globe.
